

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, Aunty Vidou!

I love you very much, Aunty Vidou, because you are the best Aunty a niece could have! You are always kind to me and help me solve my problems. We've had such good times together. My favourite was when I was a bébé and you held me in your arms at the beach!

I wish you a very Happy Birthday! And for your card, I've interviewed and compiled a collection of the best memories everyone has had of you. I hope you enjoy! 🧐🔪🎁

Love from your favourite niece,

Aarya 🧐🧐🧐🧐

Alright, Akshay. We'll give this ago, but I've told you already, only girls are allowed into QEC. A proof of being the brother of the coolest QEC alumni won't help you. 🧐

Oops, who put that beautiful bébé under the Christmas tree. Do you think I can keep her? 🧐

Me, my sister and my beau... 🧐

Ummm... I hope no one else touches that noodle. Surely everyone has taken enough? I think Did's taken way too much 🧐

Me and my other beau... Ooh la la 🧐🧐🧐

Just sitting pretty... Only beautiful ladies are allowed in this photo. 🧐🧐🧐

(Serey, can you cut that guy behind us out later?)

My beautiful family!!!

Sigh... we had such nice times pre-COVID 🧐

Tell me your favourite moments with Vidoushi.

The day she was born- that was my first favourite moment- she was such a cute bébé. 🥰🥰🥰🥰

What was her favourite food?

Doll puri and du riz doux! Later on fried rice and of course, FRIED NOODLES!! 🍜🍜🍜

Tell me about when Vidoushi as a bébé

When we came home from hospital, Vidou wanted to do a pète, and she got scared! We comforted her by saying: it's ok, it happens! And then she started laughing! 😊😊😊

Tell when when you 1st saw Vidou.

She was in her Maman's tummy and Varuna and me said: Oh it's boy! After she was born, I saw her a few hours later. 🥰🥰🥰

What makes you proud about her?

She was very cute, and she wanted to learn things fast. 😊

What were your favourite moments together?

One times, she got a flower, and said in a cute, childish way: 'Papa, casser, fleur une pour moi' 🌷🌷🌷🌷🌷

Varuna

What did you feel at the sight of Vidou?

I was 5 years old, and my Maman and Papa told me I was having a 'ti baya' (little brother), and I was a bit disappointed. But when I went to the hospital to see the new bébé (Vidou), I was super excited to find out it was a little sister instead. I still remember wearing my 'Save the Children' T-shirt and best jeans to go and see her. She was so cute as a bébé. 🌸🥰🧸

Tell me some naughty things that Vidou did.

Well where do I start...

When she was 3 or 4, she dropped her cup every time after she drank her milk or water, on the floor, as she thought they were disposable! 🤦🤦

Talking of milk, lots of it ended up in our house plants. Who remembers Sanatogen?? 🤦🤦🤦🤦

We also did lots of fun (but now considered naughty things) like eating tamarind and powdered milk and sugar when our parents were out!

(Editor's note: Talking of milk, this dislike might run in the family.)

Tell me when you were naughty to Vidou.

I will just say this 🤦🤦 in Nani's old toilet at the back 😊😊. I was very méchant and poor Auntie Vidou was very worried I would fall in the big hole of the toilet!! 🤦🤦🤦

Serey

Why are you happy Vidou is your sister-in-law?

Vidou is my favourite sister-in-law, because she is kind and considerate.

She always thinks about how others feel and offers to help whenever she can.

She is also fun to be around with especially when having noodles - Vidou is always an agreeable companion for some delicious fried noodles! 🍜🍜🍜🍜

Akshay

Because she is very nice and thoughtful to everyone. And she works very hard. 🧡

Tell me about a funny incident about you and Vidou.

I caught her eating Chop Suey out of the fridge at 3am!! 🤦

Was Vidou naughty towards you.

She used to steal my noodles and put me into the spider web in the garage. 🕸

What will you do when you 1st see Vidou again?

A gigantic hug!! it will be blessed 😊

Do you know of anything that Vidou does not want anyone to know about?

She ate the whole jar of mango pickles and blamed it on me 😊😊
